MIT (T) Aurangabad is accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC

Maharashtra Institute of Technology (MIT B. Tech.), Aurangabad, has been accredited with 'A' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). NAAC peer team had visited the Institute in September and had interacted with the students, parents, alumni members, teachers and non-teaching staff. After a thorough evaluation, the NAAC committee has awarded 'A' grade with 3.07 CGPA to the institution during its first cycle of assessment. The institute now happens to be amongst the few engineering institutes in the state to get this accreditation status with Grade 'A'. "This is a reward for our efforts. I feel that the responsibility has increased in not only sustaining this achievement but taking it to the next level" says Dr. Santosh Bhosle, Principal of the Institute. "Any quality upgradation like this benefits the stakeholders, especially students and the industries. The accreditation process helps us gauge the national attitude towards education, and get inputs from experts outside the institute. The entire system is rejuvenated and thanks to this exercise," says Prof. Munish Sharma, Director General, MIT, Aurangabad.
